only a small number of researchers receive funding to study pcos and most of the money goes toward studying the infertility side of the disorder closer to your rollout date, cvs caremark will notify all of your participating pharmacies about the rollout